Mr. Wolf reported that his staff had concluded that no legislation was necessary for CIA to establish a career service and that Col. Baird was working out the details.

The Director noted that the log had indicated that Czechoslovakia was willing to exchange AP correspondent Oatis for cessation of Radio Free Europe from Munich. He pointed out that the [redacted] case might be a bad precedent from this point of view and that we would have to be pretty hard-headed in being cajoled into this form of charter.

The Director asked if the details had been worked out as to what the doctor is to do in [redacted].
